

2014 Calendar of Events

presented by the

Reddick Mansion Association

Friday, Saturday and Sunday, September 19th, 20th and 21st—Civil War'64
Events will include Union and Confederate encampments, 2 battle re-enactments; a Civil War era medical tent, Dickey-Wallace Cemetery tours, a 19th century base ball game and historical presentations. Co-sponsored by the Ottawa Avenue Cemetery Association.

Saturday, September 27th 2:00pm— "Culinary Herbs—Part Two"
Hosted by Holly Hughes, Garden Maiden. $8.00 per person.

Saturday, October 11th 7:00pm and 9:00pm—Ghosts of Ottawa Past
Ghost stories at the Mansion and a walking tour of Ottawa's notorious haunted spots. $10.00 per person. Reservations required.

Saturday, October 25th—Afternoon Tea with Mary Todd Lincoln
Mary Todd Lincoln will be in attendance and will tell stories about her life with her husband, the President. $15.00 per person. Reservations required.

Friday, November 21st—Preview of Christmas Ornaments and Holiday Decorations Be the first to see the Mansion in its entire holiday splendor—and the first to purchase lovely and unique ornaments off the Mansion's Christmas trees.

Friday, Saturday, Sunday, November 28th-November 30th—Victorian Christmas at the Mansion Includes Holiday Open House, Christmas Music and Refreshments.

Friday, Saturday, Sunday, December 12th, 13th, and 14th—Dinner and Christmas Concert Dinner by the Cheese Shop and Music by the Prairie Singers. Reservations required.

For more information, please call the Reddick Mansion (815-433-6100) or visit our website at www.reddickmansion.org.